

Capdulture Business Enterprise Centre's (CBEC) Enterprise Network connects people who wish to help each other.

It works through local organisations and provides linkages to Government Departments and Agencies, promotes private enterprise and community projects through the voluntary involvement of organisations and their people.

Since April 1994 CBEC has been involved in the creation of over 3,000 new small ventures employing over 5,300 local people. We have recently completed Stages IV and V, and now have 20 workspaces, 10 serviced offices and a conference/training facility to assist us to continue to deliver a wide range of services to the Region's business community and entrepreneurs.

You Benefit From:

- Increased Information
- Increased Contacts
- Greater involvement in your community

Small Business and Community Organisations Benefit From:

- An input of Business Skills
- Having Valued Tasks completed
- Access to Additional Resources
- External Viewpoint on Issues
- Strengthened Links with Diverse Business Sectors

Companies Benefit From:

- Good PR from 'Corporate Citizenship' Activities
- Increased Understanding & Awareness of Community Issues
- Staff Development & Motivation
- Better Understanding of Customers' Needs
- Customer Loyalty
- Increased Community Profile

Many people today recognise that more information and contacts will help them achieve success - whether they are in business, or employed by a company or involved in a community organisation.

The Community Time & Resource Bank is a very powerful concept that offers solutions and provides a solid direction for a cohesive community.

This is a Bank of Skills, Resources and Information which is available to all who join and participate, and it is linked to a national network of Community Time & Resource Banks, to Government Departments, and to large, national companies.

You are invited to contribute your time, skills, resources and/or information to this Bank, and also benefit from the wealth of resources available

Typically, a community which has a Network of 500 people who are willing to contribute 50 hours each per year - will have a Community Time & Resource Bank of 25,000 hours of varied skills, equipment and resources.

Truly, a resource of enormous potential!

BENEFITS IN ACTION

A most important feature of the Community Time & Resource Bank Initiative is that it facilitates a PRACTICAL exchange of assistance, skills, resources or experience.

It is expected that a wide range of individual entrepreneurs, small businesses and project-focused community groups will benefit from this pooled resource.
